

Dear FCC:

Please do not stop XM from providing instant traffic and weather. The local broadcasters are falling down on the job when it comes to these two and XM provides a valuable service. The local broadcasters are just whining without good cause. If they provided a better service they wouldn't have to worry about satellite radio.

Sincerely,

John Storey